

Treasury Department,

Office of the Secretary,

Washington, D. C., February 25, 1893.

Mr. O. C. Bosbyshell,

Superintendent of the Mint,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

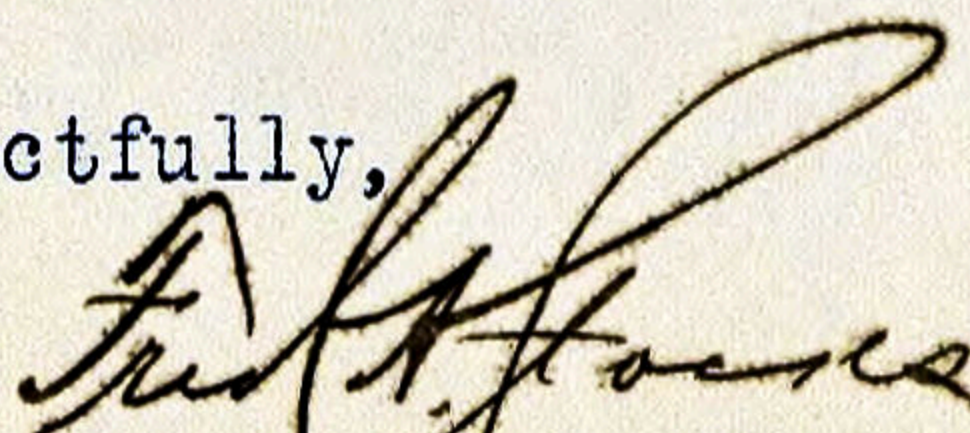

In compliance with the recommendation of Hon. E.O. Leech, Director of the Mint, you are instructed to proceed to Chicago, Illinois, and visit the Government building at the World's Columbian Exposition, and inspect the space allotted therein for the exhibit of the Bureau of the Mint, in order that you may familiarize yourself with the position in which the exhibits of said Bureau will be located. You will also make all necessary arrangements for the introduction of the line of shafting from which power is to come for propelling the coin presses to be placed in said building by your Bureau. It is also desirable that you acquaint yourself with any other matters that may expedite the putting in place and completion of your section of the Treasury Department exhibit.

Upon your return to Philadelphia you will make a report in writing, to the Representative of the Treasury Department on the Board of Management, U.S. Government Exhibit, giving in detail the result of your observations, and such recommendations in the premises as you may deem advisable.

Upon your return to Philadelphia you will be reimbursed for your actual traveling expenses from the appropriation: "Expenses, Government Board of Control, World's Columbian Exposition."

Respectfully,

Representing Treasury Department on Board of Management, U.S. Gov't. Exhibit.
